

Society for Interdisciplinary Feminist Phenomenology

Co-sponsored by:

George Washington University
Dept. of Philosophy

American University
Dept. of Philosophy & Religion

George Washington University
Gelman Library

Wednesday
October 28, 2009

Gelman Library
Room 301/302
2130 H Street NW
Washington, D.C.

Free and open to the public.
Please bring photo I.D. to enter the building.

lecture

7:00 pm

Linda Martín Alcoff

“Sotomayor's Reasoning”

The presentation will focus on the epistemological issues raised by Supreme Court Justice Sonia Sotomayor's "wise Latina" comment that dominated her recent Senate confirmation hearings.

roundtable

8:30 pm

Forging Interdisciplinary Connections

Linda Martín Alcoff
Hunter College, NYC

Linda Fisher
Central European University, Budapest

Lisa Folkmarson Käll
Uppsala University, Sweden

Patricia Locke
St. John's College, Maryland

Mariana Ortega
John Carroll University, Ohio

reception

10:00 pm

Please join us for a wine and empanada reception after the roundtable.